DIRECTORS' REPORT

Faisal Bengali
Chief Executive Officer

The Board of Directors of Golden Arrow Selected Stocks Fund Limited (GASSFL) is pleased to present its report along with the accounts of the Fund for the financial year ended 30th June 2008.

Investment Strategy

GASSFL is designed to invest in fundamentally strong companies offering deep-value, coupled with a few cherry-picked growth stocks. The fund's main focus is equities, and minor exposures are taken in fixed income and money market if equities lack opportunity.

Fund's Performance

The Fund has posted a net profit after tax of PkR 35.19 mn (EPS PKR 0.26) for FY08 versus last year's profit of PkR 416.435 mn (EPS PkR 3.08). The profit after tax includes PkR 112.4mn in capital gains, PkR 48.72mn in dividend income and PkR 106.02mn loss through unrealized diminution on remeasurement of investments.

The NAV of the fund started the year at PkR 8.98 and rose to 9.16 at the close of the year. The fund returned 1.98% during the year on an NAV basis. This return includes PkR 0.75/share of cash dividend and a bonus of 10% announced in FY07.

Market Performance

FY08 was an eventful year for the Pakistani capital markets. The year witnessed key developments on the political and economic front. The KSE100 started the year at 13,772 and ended at 12,289, declining by 10.77% during the period. However, if we delve into more detail, there was considerably greater volatility in FY08, as a host of geo-political and economic events unfolded in FY08.

Economy

The economy grew at a rate of 5.8% during FY08, close to the 6% average for the last three years. High international oil and commodity prices made their impact and the current account deficit widened to US$11bn in FY08 from US$7bn in FY07. Foreign reserves of the country declined from US$15.6bn to US$13.6bn at the end of FY08. However, the outlook for economy is not bleak. Government has started to aggressively reduce the subsidy on oil products, with plans to completely eliminate it by Dec-08. Government has also promised to reduce the domestic borrowing, reducing the pressure on the money market. However, investors also need to be cognizant of the fact that high international oil and commodity prices are making an impact on the global economy and Pakistan. In our view, the economy has a lot of potential (despite having one of the lowest per hectare yields in the world, we are almost self sufficient in food grains and products), we are strategically located with, more than 160 million inhabitants. All these resources if properly utilized will bring long-lasting growth to the economy.

Going forward for FY09, we expect the economy to grow above 5.5% and continue to do so for the next couple of years.

Future Outlook

We are positive on the future prospects of KSE-100 Index and Pakistan's capital market. The market has succeeded in maintaining a high earnings growth level and has put itself on the radar screens of foreign fund managers investing in emerging markets.

Additionally, our main strategy of buying fundamentally strong, under valued stocks remains intact. The strategy has helped us maximize our shareholder's returns and we believe that it will help us continue to perform exceptionally well in the years to come.

Investment policy

General nature of the business transacted and to be transacted by the company will be the investing of its assets in securities. The purpose of the company is to provide a vehicle whereby investors can invest their funds in securities under the directions of AKD Investment Management Limited (thereafter called Investment Adviser), subject to the general control and directions of the Board of Directors. The object of the Company is to achieve superior results through a combination of investment strategies, which includes investing in high quality growth stocks, stocks that offer deep value and high dividend paying scripts. Although the Company's fund may be invested primarily in ordinary stocks, it may also take a significant position in other securities listed on a stock exchange (e.g. debentures, participation terms certificate, modaraba certificate etc.) from time to time to protect against capital losses when the stock market appears vulnerable. Selection of securities for the portfolio will be based, as far as possible, on their potential capital appreciation possibilities.

The company's investment policy, with its emphasis on investing in securities for their potential capital appreciation possibilities, may involve a substantially greater portion of the portfolio for capital gains.

Acknowledgements

The directors would like to take this opportunity to thank the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan, the Ministry of Finance, the State Bank of Pakistan and the managements of the Stock Exchanges for their support to mutual fund community as a whole and our custodian M/s Central Depository Company for their cooperation and support to us. The board also appreciates the devoted work performed by the staff and officers of the company and the shareholders for their confidence in the Company, and their continued support and blessings.

FUND MANAGER'S REPORT

Fund Description Investment Objective

GASSFL is Pakistan's oldest privately held closed-end mutual fund and it was acquired by AKDIML in September 2004. Following a conservative philosophy of only investing in under-valued stocks, offering deep value, coupled with a few cherry-picked growth companies, GASSFL has posted one of the industry leading performances, since coming under AKDIML's management control.

Investment in the Fund will provide investors with a means to access the capital markets by utilizing the professional fund management expertise available with AKD Investment Management Limited (AKDIML).

Fund Performance

GASF posted a positive return of 1.98%, while the benchmark KSE-100 Index declined by 10.77%; outperforming the KSE-100 Index by 12.75%. Last year GASF posted a return of 44.04%, while the benchmark KSE-100 Index posted a return of 37.87%.

Market Performance

FY08 was an eventful year for the Pakistani capital markets. The year witnessed key developments on the political and economic front. The KSE100 started the year at 13,772 and ended at 12,289, declining by 10.77% during the period. However, if we delve into more detail, there was considerably greater volatility in FY08, as a host of geo-political and economic events unfolded in FY08.

Economic Outlook

FY08 was an election year, where in the first phase political transition process went smoothly, elections were peaceful, free and fair and more importantly the results were accepted by all the stakeholders. Post elections, a coalition government has come to the helm and although doubts remain over the continuity of the current coalition. We believe coalition government will continue to be in operation in one form or another. However, the key concern for investor community is that the political wrangling should not hamper the much needed decisions/actions needed to address the growing problems posed by higher international oil and commodity prices. In this regard, we appreciate the tough decision of passing on the higher oil prices to the consumers. Going forward, we would also like to see greater effort in attracting investments both from international and domestic sources, in order to improve the overall living standards of the consumers.

For capital market investors, the overall economy is always the major cause of concern for most investors. Here, we would also like to see concrete steps from the government on the following:

- Inflation - Although, SBP has already raised interest rates to counter inflation. High commodity prices the primary source of inflation is beyond the central bank's domain.
- High current account deficit - High interest rates are making an impact on the aggregate demand and overall import bill. Going forward, we expect further curbs on luxury or unnecessary items to reduce the trade deficit. Furthermore, the much expected Saudi oil facility should help ease the situation for at least a couple of years.
- Pkr/US$ parity, FDI and FPII - The weakening currency and high interest rates are having a negative impact on the capital account. We believe the biggest challenge for the new government is to maintain and increase the investment inflow. Hence, we expect a greater amount of effort on this front. Last year, we saw MCB, Indus Motor and Lucky Cement GDR, going forward, we expect investments in oil & gas, telecommunication, media and other sectors will pick-up as time progresses.

In our view, Pakistan's strategic location, strong links with Middle Eastern countries and economies, incentives to foreign investors should ensure a steady inflow of FDIs in the country. We also expect the government to tap international market with debt issues (euro-dollar bonds or Sukuks), while the block sale to strategic investors or GDRs of NBP, KAPCO and other entities should be expedited. The reason for detailed emphasis is that in the absence of inflows and higher outflows (oil import bill), foreign reserves were depleting allowing speculators to provide impetus to the under pressure PKR.

Market Outlook

The benchmark KSE-100 Index posted its first correction in the last seven years, where on a year on year (YoY) basis it declined by -10.77%. However, investors should be pleased to know that Golden Arrow Selected Stocks Fund Limited posted a positive return of 1.98%. Going forward, in our view the recent steep correction has made stocks extremely attractive, as most of the blue-chip stocks are trading in the P/E range of 7x to 9x, while on a P/BVS basis in the range of 1.1x to 1.7x. Additionally, market has already priced in the economic challenges. In our opinion, stocks still remain an attractive investment choice, although style and sector selections remain critical. One of the main positives for equity markets is the earning growth; estimates for next year (which are approaching 20%) remain strong. However, the result season will not lead to short-term bullish rallies across the board as the past practice has been; this time round it would be more selective rallies. Hence, we reiterate that stock selection and true expertise of fund managers will now be tested. For investors knowledge we would like to briefly outline our strategy for the coming year, which is as follows:

- One of our key themes last year has been our preference for large caps. This has worked out well throughout the year and we do not foresee any change in this strategy, going forward.
- Rising costs and inflation bite into small-cap performance. We believe small caps will struggle to maintain margins in the face of higher input cost due to inflation and slowing economic growth. Larger caps should be less affected as they tend to have more pricing power and operate in more defensive sectors; there is a greater proportion of commodity-related stocks in the large-cap group (e.g OGDC, PPL and POL). Hence, our portfolio was and remains skewed towards energy producing stocks, which are likely to benefit from high international oil prices. Furthermore, we also like large banks over small banks, as they are now trading at attractive levels and have the necessary reach to tap into low cost of funds relative to small cap banks which are finding it hard to manage the liquidity situation.
- Large caps continue to trade at a discount. On a simple forward P/E basis, large caps are trading in the range of 7x to 9x versus small caps which are still trading above 12x. In some ways this is unusual, but given the low liquidity and small free float price discovery is an issue in the small caps.
- Large-cap stocks also tend to have a higher dividend yield and stronger balance sheets - both helpful attributes given that the upside risk to interest rates and inflation remains high. Furthermore, we expect higher dividend payout from government owned entities, which bodes well for the overall portfolio.

Pakistan's capital market is still cheaper than the comparative regional emerging markets. This makes the market very attractive for foreign fund managers looking for value and growth potential.

In the recent correction, Commercial Banks was the worst hit sector, where almost all the leading banks lost more than 50% of the market cap from their peaks. Hence, we as fund managers have gradually increased our exposure to the sector, based on the fundamental research provided by internal as well as outside research houses. We believe foreign investors have erroneously applied the sub prime and other international banking issues to the Pakistani banking sector. Our fundamental research suggests that the large banks have strong fundamentals and will continue to deliver above average return to shareholders. Hence, most of our investments is in the large banks of Pakistan, which are adequately capitalized, have strong branch network and strong bottom-line prospects.

Exposure in the Oil & Gas Exploration & Production was increased as the oil prices witnessed record levels. Furthermore, the increase in oil and gas production and simultaneous rise in exploration activity increased the attractiveness of the sector. The sector enjoys dollar denominated returns, hence, the recent strength of US$ against the Pak rupee (PKR) also contributes favorable to the bottom-line.

Exposure in the Auto sector was decreased as the depreciating PKR increased the cost of production of the domestic assemblers. Decline in leasing due to a combination of increase in interest rates and growing reluctance of commercial banks reduced the demand for automobiles.

Although, cement stock prices have also dipped, we are still doubtful regarding the profitability of the sector. The increase in cost of production of the sector shall make it difficult for cement companies to post good results.

We are selectively positive on the market, where we reiterate our view that equity market volatility will continue, but we view these conditions as offering significant investment opportunities to exploit. We continue to favor investment in large caps over small caps. We also prefer companies with strong management, greater pricing power and sustained growth prospects.

Following is a graphical representation of sector-wise exposure of the fund's portfolio as it stands on 30th June 08:

Payout to Shareholders

As part of our audit of the financial statements we are required to obtain an understanding of the accounting and internal control systems sufficient to plan the audit and develop an effective audit approach. We have not carried out any special review of the internal control system to enable us to express an opinion as to whether the Board's statement on internal control covers all controls and the effectiveness of such internal controls.

3 BASIS OF MEASUREMENT

3.1 These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention except for certain investments which are carried at fair value.

3.2 The financial statements are presented in Pak Rupees, which is the company's functional and presentation currency.

3.3 Critical accounting estimates and judgments

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with approved accounting standards requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires the management to exercise its judgment in the process of applying the company's accounting policies. Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The areas where various assumptions and estimates are significant to the company's financial statements or where judgment was exercised in application of accounting policies are as follows:

- Classification and valuation of investments (note 4.2 and 6)

4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below:

4.1 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are carried in the balance sheet at cost. Cash and cash equivalents comprise of bank balances.

4.2 Investments

The management determines the appropriate classification of the company's investments in accordance with the requirements of International Accounting Standard (IAS) 39: 'Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement', at the time of purchase and re-evaluates this classification on a regular basis. All purchase and sales of securities that require delivery within the time frame established by regulation or market convention such as 'T+2' purchases and sales are recognised at the trade date. Trade date is the date on which the Company commits to purchase or sell the assets.

a) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Investments that are acquired principally for the purpose of generating a profit from short-term fluctuations in prices are classified as 'Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss'. These investments are marked to market using the closing market rates at the end of each day and are carried on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities at fair value. Net gains and losses arising on changes in fair value of these investments are taken to the Income Statement.

Investments in unquoted debt securities, if any, are carried at fair value.

b) Available for sale

Available for sale financial assets are those non-derivative financial assets that are designated as available for sale or are not classified as (a) loans and receivables, (b) held to maturity investments or (c) financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

Investments categorised as available for sale are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial assets. Subsequent to initial recognition, 'available for sale' investments are measured at fair value. Net gains and losses arising on changes in fair values of these investments are taken to equity until the available for sale investment is derecognised. At this time, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised directly in equity is transferred to the income statement.

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset classified as available for sale is impaired. If evidence of impairment exists, the cumulative loss recognised in equity is removed from equity and is recognised in the income statement.

Investments in unquoted debt securities, if any, are carried at fair value.

Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or where the Company has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership.

c) Loans and receivables

These are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. These investments are initially recognised at fair value. Subsequently these investments are carried at amortised cost.

d) Held to maturity

These are securities with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity that the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity.

These investments are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial assets. Subsequent to initial recognition these investments are carried at amortised cost.

4.3 Derivatives

Derivative instruments are initially recognised at fair value and subsequent to initial measurement each derivative instrument is remeasured to its fair value and the resultant gain or loss is recognised in the income statement.

4.4 Short-term liabilities and other payables

Short-term liabilities and other payables are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently carried at amortised cost.

4.5 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate of the obligation can be made. Provisions are regularly reviewed and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate.

4.6 Dividend distribution and transfer between reserves

Dividends declared and transfers between reserves made subsequent to the balance sheet date are considered as non-adjusting events and are recognised in the financial statements in the year in which such dividends are declared / transfers are made.

4.7 Taxation

Current

Provision for current taxation is based on taxable income at the current rates of taxation after taking into account tax credits and rebates, if any.

Deferred

The company provides for deferred taxation using the balance sheet liability method on all major temporary differences between the amounts attributed to assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and amounts used for taxation purposes. In addition, the company also records deferred tax asset on unutilised tax losses to the extent that these will be available for set off against future taxable profits. Deferred tax assets are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised. However, the company has not recognised any amount of deferred tax in these financial statements as the company intends to continue availing the tax exemption in future years by distributing at least 90 percent of its accounting income for the year as reduced by capital gains, whether realised or unrealised to its shareholders every year.

4.8 Impairment

The carrying amounts of the company's assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment of any asset or a group of assets. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of such asset is estimated and impairment losses are recognised in the income statement.

4.9 Revenue recognition

- Dividend income on equity securities is recognised in the income statement when the right to receive the dividend is established.
- Unrealised gains / losses arising on re-measurement of securities classified as 'financial assets at fair value through profit or loss' are included in the income statement in the period in which they arise.
- Income on term finance certificates is recognised on an accrual basis.
- Profit on bank deposits is recognised on an accrual basis.

4.10 Financial assets and financial liabilities

Financial assets carried on the statement of assets and liabilities include bank balances, receivable against sale of investments, investments, dividend and other receivables.

Financial liabilities carried on the statement of assets and liabilities include remuneration payable to the investment adviser, payable against purchase of investments, accrued expenses and other liabilities and unclaimed dividend.

At the time of initial recognition, all financial assets and financial liabilities are measured at fair value. The particular recognition methods adopted for subsequent remeasurement of significant financial assets and financial liabilities are disclosed in the individual policy statements associated with each item.

4.11 Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the statement of assets and liabilities when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

22 RISK MANAGEMENT

The company primarily invests in listed equity and debt securities. These investments are subject to varying natures of risk. These risks emanate from various factors that include, but are not limited to the following:

22.1 Yield / Interest rate risk

Yield risk is the risk of decline in earnings due to adverse movements of the yield curve. Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of the financial instruments will fluctuate due to changes in the market interest rates. Sensitivity to interest / mark-up rate risk arises from mismatches or gaps in the amounts of interest / mark-up based assets and liabilities that mature or reprice in a given period. The management of the company manages this risk by matching the repricing of financial asset and liabilities through risk management strategies.

22.2 Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the value of financial instruments may fluctuate as a result of changes in market price of securities due to change in market sentiments, speculative activities, supply and demand of securities and liquidity in the market.

The company manages market risk by monitoring exposure on marketable securities by following internal risk management policies and investment guidelines approved by the Investment Committee and regulations laid down by the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan.

22.3 Credit risk

Credit risk arises from the inability of the counter parties to fulfill their obligations in respect of financial instruments contracts.

All investing transactions are settled / paid for upon delivery using approved brokers. The company's policy is to enter into financial instrument contract by following internal guidelines such as approving counterparties and carrying out transactions through approved brokers.

Concentration of credit risk exists when changes in economic or industry factors similarly affect group of counter parties whose aggregate credit exposure is significant in relation to the company's total credit exposure. The company's portfolio of financial instrument is broadly diversified and transactions are entered into with diverse creditworthy counterparties thereby mitigating any significant concentration of credit risk.

22.4 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an enterprise will encounter difficulty in raising funds to meet commitments associated with financial instruments. The company is not materially exposed to liquidity risk as all obligations / commitments of the company are short term in nature and are restricted to the extent of available liquidity and the significant assets of the company are readily disposable in the market.

23 CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Golden Arrow Selected Stocks Fund is a closed end fund. The Fund has a limited number of shares subscribed at the Fund's inception. However, further public offering may be made at the Fund's discretion. The Fund's shares are not redeemable directly with the fund; instead shares are traded on the stock exchange at a price that is either at a premium or discount to the shares net asset value.

The Fund's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern so that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and to maintain a strong capital base to meet unexpected losses or opportunities. In accordance with the NBFC Regulations the Fund is required to distribute at least ninety percent of its income from sources other than capital gains as reduced by such expenses as are chargeable to the Fund.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Fund may adjust dividends paid to shareholders or issue new shares.

24 FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Fair value is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged, or liability settled, between knowledgeable willing parties in an arm's length transaction. Consequently differences can arise between carrying values and the fair value estimates.

Underlying the definition of fair value is the presumption that the company is a going concern without any intention or requirement to curtail materially the scale of its operations or to undertake a transaction on adverse terms.

Financial assets which are tradable in an open market are revalued at the market prices prevailing on the balance sheet date. The estimated fair value of all other financial assets and liabilities is considered not significantly different from book value as the items are short term in nature.

25 NON-ADJUSTING EVENT AFTER THE BALANCE SHEET DATE

The Board of Directors of the company in their meeting held on July 26, 2008 have proposed a bonus issue at the rate of 12.5% percent for the year ended June 30, 2008 (June 30, 2007: Cash dividend 15% and bonus issue 10%). The financial statements of the company for the year ended June 30, 2008 do not include the effect of this distribution which will be accounted for in the financial statements for the year ending June 30, 2009.
