Introduction of Departments

1 Pakistan Rural Education Programme (PREP)

PREP is the herald of educational revolution in Pakistan and its students are vanguard of the educational forces advancing towards the goal of "Better Society Through Value Based Education". PREP is the evidence to the fact that missionary passions and sincere efforts can make the dreams true. PREP was established in 1997 with sincere aspiration to elevate the education standard in Pakistan especially in remote, deprived rural areas. It was started with limited resources but with staunch faith in the help of Allah Almighty. It is laudable that Pakistan Rural Education Programme flourished in a short span of eight years. Now there are 262 schools working in 27 districts of Punjab with 1193 devoted teachers and having 25,686 students in these schools. Pakistan Rural Education Programme is focusing on quality education adopting modern and progressive ways keeping in view the moral values and ethics. PREP is responsible for establishing high standard education centers in remote and rural areas. It has chosen the life of Imam Ghazali (450-505 AD) as a role model and named its learning centers as Ghazali School System (GSS). It is a single-class, single teacher phenomenon which will soon turn into a full fledged primary or secondary school.

Reflections

Lt. General (R) Khalid Maqbool
(Governor Punjab)

Ghazali Education Trust has provided educational facilities to those children who have no resources to acquire quality education. I congratulate you and your team on this noble effort. I think that the time has come that society must assist and cooperate with you.

Mian Imran Masood
(Education Minister Punjab)

Your efforts to promote education in far off rural areas are admirable. The government of Punjab values all those institutions like Ghazali Education Trust which are striving to spread education.

Siraj ul Haq
(Finance Minister NWFP)

Ghazali Education Trust has rendered out excellent performance in short time. It has showed a right path of welfare work to all NGO's by spreading the light of education. I was really satisfied after seeing their performance report. I congratulate all the management.

Dr. Hasan Sohaib Murad (Chancellor University of Management & Technology Lahore)

A great effort to uplift education and expand its reach. It is a unique success in Pakistan. I pray to Allah for its success and progress (Amin).

Margaret Brown (Scotland UK)

The work you all do is of importance into the development of the future of Pakistan. The children of today are the future & what they will do to your credit.

Justice (R) Naseem Hassan Shah
(Former Chief Justice
Supreme Court of Pakistan)

Deeply impressed by the excellent work being done by the young administrators of the Ghazali Education Trust. It was an eye opener for all those who are disappointed regarding the future of the country & the character of its population. May God Bless them all.

Atta ul Haq Qasimi (Former Ambassador & Famous columnist)

I was regretted after visiting Ghazali Education Trust, why I have been unaware of the constructive and welfare work so far. During the meeting with the Trust management, I realized that all these people have missionary spirit. I request the affluent people to cooperate with the Trust for providing education to poor children.

Irshad Ahmad Haqani (Famous Columnist Daily Jang)

Whatever the information I gleaned, I am perfectly satisfied that Ghazali Education Trust is really a genuine institution. I invite Pakistani affluent people to assist this Trust financially and morally.

S.M Zafar

It is for my deep satisfaction that a group of sincere and confident people has initiated a noble mission of promoting education in the name of Imam Ghazali. Today's meeting has evoked the hope that they will do it.

Malik Miraj Khalid (Late)
(Former Prime Minister of Pakistan)

I think this is a unique organization which has setup noble example for others to follow. I wish very much that I could contribute as much as like because it is the duty of every Pakistani to support them, to make their programme a success.
